

Sarah Valle: Director & Vocal Teacher

Sarah began her adventure with Eastminster Presbyterian in 2014 as the alto section leader, and shortly thereafter switched to the soprano section leader. Sarah is now back to singing alto! She received her BA in Music (Vocal Performance) and English with a minor in Film Production from Pittsburgh's Chatham University. Since 2020, Sarah has been asked to participate in the Lift Every Voice Unity Choir (under the direction of Nikki Porter) to sing with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra where she has expanded her knowledge of musical genres. During the day, Sarah works as Eastminster's Administrative Assistant, and she has been teaching with the Judah Project since 2021. In 2022, Sarah became the Director of the Judah Project. Sarah currently lives within the city, and she enjoys sound engineering for Eastminster, bands, and theatre companies. Born and raised in West Virginia, Sarah enjoys walking barefoot, cooking, baking, and crafting.
